

Remembering the “Storm of ‘78”

Saturday, February 16th, 12:30 PM to 3 PM,
Salt Pond Visitor Center, Eastham

Free, 30th-anniversary program featuring guest presenters and local witnesses sharing their stories and memorabilia.

1 PM: Michael Tougias, author of The Blizzard of '78 presents vivid accounts of the weather, anecdotes, impacts, and the aftermath. Book signing to follow.

2 PM: Cape Cod National Seashore Historian William Burke discusses the relocation of Old Harbor Life-Saving Station from the eroding Chatham shoreline to Provincetown a few months before the storm.

2:45 PM: Don Wilding, President of the Henry Beston Society and author of Henry Beston's Cape Cod, shares the story of the Outermost House, swept away during the storm. Book signing to follow.

12:30 to 3 PM: Community members will share recollections and memorabilia. Call Salt Pond Visitor Center to find out how you can participate.

Salt Pond Visitor Center, Route 6 at Nauset Road, Eastham
(508) 255 - 3421 Ext. 0, www.nps.gov/caco

Financial support for this program is provided by Eastern National, operating bookstores at seashore visitor centers, and serving visitors to America's National Parks and other Public Trusts.